

Income Sources to be Declared

1. The full amount, before any payroll deductions, of wages and salaries, overtime pay, commissions, fees, tips and bonuses, and other compensation for personal services;
2. The net income from operations of a business or profession.
3. Interest, dividends and other net income of any kind from savings and checking accounts, certificates of deposit, stocks, bonds, or any real or personal property;
4. The full amount of regular periodic payments received from Social Security, annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, pensions, disability or death benefits and other similar types of periodic receipts, including lump sum payment for the delayed start of a periodic payment;
5. Payments in lieu of earnings, such as unemployment and disability compensation, worker's compensation and severance pay; (Lump sum additions to family assets, such as inheritances, insurance payments, capital gains and settlements from personal or property losses are excluded.)
6. Periodic and determinable allowances, such as alimony and child support payments and regular contributions or gifts received from persons not residing in the dwellings;
7. All regular pay, special pay and allowances of a member of the Armed Forces. Special pay to a member exposed to hostile fire is excluded;
8. Any earned income tax credit to the extent it exceeds income tax liability.

I have read and understand the above and certify that I have listed all sources of income, as defined above, on my application.
